We share everything from customer service training activities to ideas for fun coaching games, as we help to freshen up your contact centre coaching programme. 1. Think About the Different Ways People Learn (VARK). After a big training session, ask advisors to create an action plan about how they are going to put their new skills into practice. So, Helen recommends: "After a big training session, ask advisors to create an action plan about how they are going to put their new skills into practice." We should also be following this up and asking advisors to share an example of when they practised their new-found skills in their next quality monitoring session.
