When you love someone who drinks too much or suffers from addiction, it hurts. You found the right community. The type of addiction doesn't really matter. We have women in our community who love good people that are addicted to alcohol, drugs (legal or illegal), prescription pills, gambling, pornography, or sex among other things. One of our core values is that we never do judgment, towards you, or your loved one. We believe they are truly are good people, and when you say you're in love with them, we understand that. Maybe you've had people try to convince you to leave before, or tell you that you shouldn't love them anymore. Well, that's not exactly how love works, is it?
