A rainbow of friends does justice to the topic with its illustrations. The pictures represent difference and express the ability to get along with one another. Although not broadly This book is perfect for children. A Rainbow of Friends is a fictional picture book targeting children ages 3 to 5. The story presents a realistic scenario about children of all walks of life; children of various ethnicity, appearances, abilities and disabilities and personalities. The story illustrates that children with disabilities and challenges still enjoy companionship & activities like non-disabled children.

I love this idea of making a Fruit Loop friendship bracelet for the first day of pre-school, regular school, the last day of school, slumber parties, birthday parties, and as a Sunday School lesson on friendship! The Fruit Loops are large enough, that even teeny tiny hands can manage to help with this activity! Just bead the Fruit Loops through a piece of yarn! Kid Friendly Things To Do *The Best of Kid Friendly Things To Do. SPOILERS AHEAD! BE WARNED! There are those who would seek your good graces. The question is who these petitioners are, and what they can pay. Game Instructions: Being a Person of Some Importance has its perks: but you can only play this once. Choose wisely. You may either use it immediately or wait until you need something in particular. Unlocked with A Person of Some Importance - a significant individual (1) This item:A Rainbow of Friends by P.K.
