Jesus healing the bleeding woman (or "woman with an issue of blood" and other variants) is one of the miracles of Jesus in the Gospels (Matthew 9:20-22, Mark 5:25-34, Luke 8:43-48). In the Gospel accounts, this miracle immediately follows the exorcism at Gerasa and is combined with the miracle of the Daughter of Jairus. The narrative interrupts the story of Jairus's daughter, a stylistic element which scholars call an intercalated or sandwich narrative. The incident occurred while Jesus was traveling. Su JiuQing is the daughter of the first wife of a government official, but her life is anything but pampered. Her father is cruel, her aunt is a hypocrite, and her little white lotus sister harbors sinister intentions towards her. In the past, she was forced to fight for her husband, despite her worsening reputation, and this conflict ultimately led to the scheme that took away her life. But, her life would not end there. After her death, she awakens again in the body of her younger self. With her silver needles and knowledge of the future as her strength, she runs towards the young general in Women who Run with the Wolves, Burning Woman, Moon Time, Women's Bodies Women's Wisdom a shelf full of life-changing books for women, by women authors include Clarissa Pinkola Estes, Christiane Northrup, Glennie Kindred, Lucy H. Pearce, Starhawk, Louise L. Hay, Oriah Mountain Dreamer, Susun Weed... Lucy H. Pearce's next book, Medicine Woman: reclaiming the soul of healing - the sister/companion title to Burning Woman.
