The Muslim Brotherhood was founded by an Egyptian schoolteacher, Hassan al-Banna, in 1928. At that time, there was a fascination among the literati of the Middle East, and around the world, with Leninism and their communist vanguard. Muslim Brotherhood is considered the first politically active and largest Islamist organization. Source and more details here: Who is the Muslim Brotherhood that the founder of jihadism belonged to? | Books on Trial. The Muslim Brotherhood, or al-Ikhwan (the Brothers) is a Middle Eastern religious and political movement whose stated goal is to instill the Qur'an and Sunnah as the "sole reference point for ordering the life of the Muslim family, individual, community, and state." Unlike Salafis, the movement officially supports the use of democracy and scorns the use of violence to achieve its means, although that doesn't mean all members follow suit; it has, in the past, been home to a militant wing known as the
