Psalm 23, however, says I shall not want, speaking to our desires. It's saying not only can God take care of my physical needs, but that He can also fulfill me. He can satisfy my heart. I wonder how much would our lives change if we didn't live from a mentality of lack but lived by the truth that "the Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want." We'd then be able to look at the dry and empty places in our lives and truly see how God is still providing and protecting even when we're walking through the valley of the shadow of death. We May Not be Where We Want to be, but We Can Trust that God Has Us There for a Reason.
