Practice makes perfect. You are here. Home. Practice makes perfect. Previous. Next. Whether it's vocabulary, grammar, or simply working on your accent and fluency, you can always improve. I really want to help these students become the best linguists they can be, and have the potential to be, but unless they start to help themselves there's only so much I can do. But this article isn't only to moan about my students (I promise!) "Practice makes perfect". I see this again and it gives me motivation to practise more. Everything depends on your efforts, and my own experience proved it.
